

Deep Thinking for Deep Learning

The infusion of thinking into classroom pedagogical practice is critical for learner success...as all substantive learning is driven by substantive thinking.

Deep thinking and deep learning don't just happen... they must be strategically planned for!

INDIVIDUALS: $595
(before Dec 19th: $515)

Principal attends for FREE when accompanying 4 paying teachers

LANE IS ALSO AVAILABLE TO WORK DIRECTLY WITH YOUR STAFF

Email for details: office@laneclark.ca

Lane Clark is an expert on thinking and learning. Her tools, strategies and processes are currently used in classrooms in 16 countries. She has authored two books and created a suite of powerful thinking and learning resources (all published in Australia by Hawker Brownlow).

Simply the best professional learning that that I've attended in my 40 year career! Profound, inspiring and practical.

Michael W. Principal, VIC

Brisbane

February 24 - 25, 2015

Melbourne

March 12 -13, 2015

Sydney

March 26 - 27, 2015

Workshop Outcomes

- discover how the brain processes new information and what you can do to facilitate this vital process
- develop your knowledge and understanding around breadth of thinking versus depth of thinking
- learn how to strategically aid learners in the acquisition, integration, extension and refinement of new learning
- develop your practical knowledge of a diversity of thinking and learning tools, strategies and processes as you use these during your workshop experience
- explore what it means for learners to learn HOW to learn and HOW to think
- develop your ability to design truly authentic, relevant and rigorous learning opportunities
- learn how Lane's strategic approach to planning facilitates deep thinking for deep learning

DON'T MISS THIS OPPORTUNITY - BOOK NOW! - email us at: office@laneclark.ca to register